COME WITH US, FOR . . .

In the splendor of God's presence we live,. . .In God's world, for He made it. . .The sea is His and the mountains, and the little towns in the valleys. . .Under His sky, where the clouds rest against clear blue by day and cool blackness by night. . .In His world, where roads wind homeward like ribbons in sunlight and starlight,. . .Where man's footsteps wind homeward too through the dark and the day of Life. . .In the Light of Faith, with the joyous step of Hope, seeking His Face to worship, we walk. . .Hungering for His Truth, and longing to give his Cause our Loving Service,. . .For He is a God of Joy and to serve Him is glory. . .In our wonderful world we walk, for He made it and it is beautiful. . .In the midst of all earth's agony of heart today we walk in Peace. . .Knowing that one choice of evil in our souls is more terrible. . .Than ten Red Armies marching by night. . .Knowing Christ conquers and that His Life is eternal.

This is the victory which overcomes the world--our Faith! Here, in a little town where the steeple of Sts. Peter and Paul church is the highest point, we have learned of the beauty of Life--of the gladness of God.

CHAPTER 1 . . . FAITH

"I believe In God the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth . . . And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord. . ." The light of His eternal glory has been shed upon our school days. . . And with radiance it extends beyond our graduation night. . . For our Faith our school was built,. . . Our teachers to its glory dedicated their lives,. . . And in its brightness we shall walk through the shadows of life. . . Triumphant--because "We believe" and "We will serve".

The wisdom of God unfolds to man through the study of science, music, literature. Here to venerable Seneca Catholic, where the Iron Stairs thread together the days of joy and endeavor we came as freshmen in a golden September, 1946. A monument to the faith of the pioneers, Seneca Catholic reminds us as we leave in Maytime that Faith in God will guide us unerringly to Peace.

WITH HIS SAINTS FOREVER

High school boys and alumni members whom Father Albert taught in former years sang his requiem. Here the choir listens to the singing of the gospel. As one student wrote, "When the choir sang for his requiem, it seemed to me that Father Albert was singing with them."

Father had great devotion to Our Lady of Fatima and had worked untiringly to make it a parish devotion in the interest of world peace. On the day of his requiem, high school girls ask Our Lady to keep him safe in her home of peace and glory.

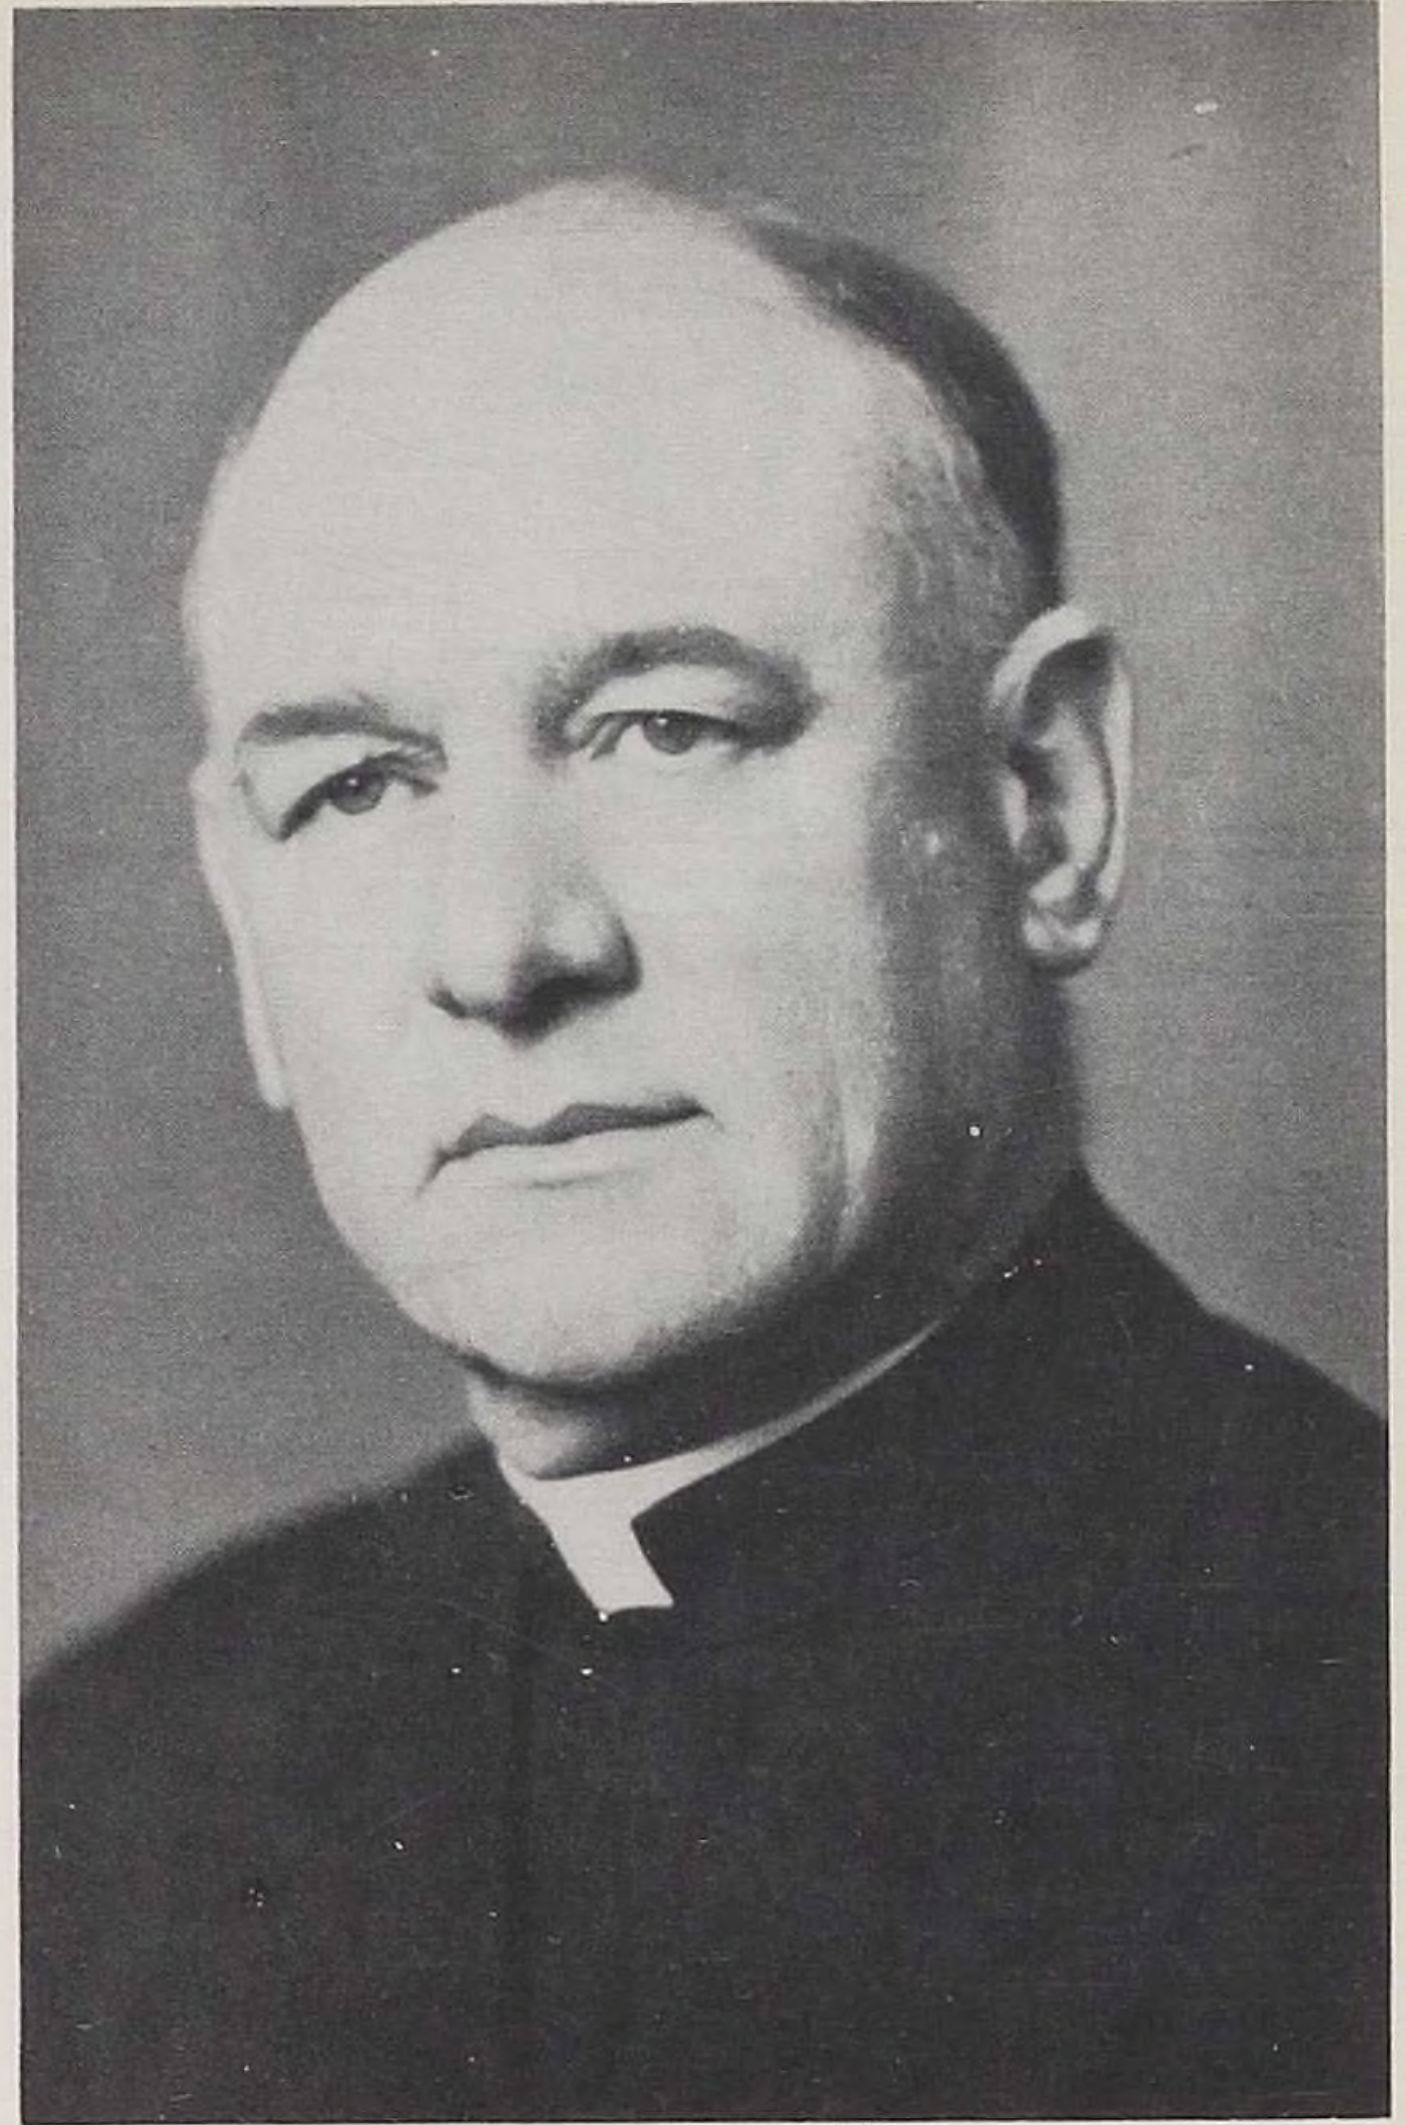

Our Lady of Fatima, obtain peace for the world, and light eternal for the pastor who loved us and you.

May his devotion to you remain with us and help us to meet you and your Son as he met you, after a life given for Christ and your other children.

WE DEDICATE

We might have forgotten about the splendor of God. . .we might have let our ideas about it stay only in the Ideal World. . .except that one beautiful September day this year, our best friend and leader quietly put aside his work and walked out of the glory of autumn into the unclouded Vision of God. Father Albert Haverkamp, O.S.B., a man who loved earth's common beauties and who had lived 55 years in the consciousness of God's presence, went to His reward September 30, 1949.

And so we dedicate our 1950 Trojan to you, Father Albert. Pastor of Seneca for two years, executor of the school's improvement program, lover of singing and praying, you left us an example to follow and a memory to love.

Always as we turn the pages of this book we shall remember the vibrancy of your voice as you sang the Preface, and the kindness of your smile on the playground. We shall remember how you made our old school a place of beauty, as you painted walls and ceilings on hot days, installed new light fixtures and Venetian blinds, equipped a library, and dreamed of a new school. We shall remember your thirst for beauty as you directed THE UPPER ROOM, THE VALIANT, and started the parish Holy Hour that man might taste more deeply of God. And we shall rejoice that you are waiting for us now in the beauty which "eye hath not seen, nor ear heard."

THAT IN ALL THINGS . . .

GOD MAY BE GLORIFIED. . .

WE'LL ALWAYS REMEMBER

GUIDING US ON IN THE VISION. . .

Father Edmund, zealous priest, hard worker, friend with a twinkle in his eye and a faith which makes all hard things easy. From a large parish in Burlington, Iowa, Father Edmund came to Seneca last October. The needs of Seneca's 500 families, of Seneca Catholic's Student body, and of a new home for another Iron Stairs fell on capable shoulders when God sent the pastor with the pioneer heart and genial courage to Seneca.

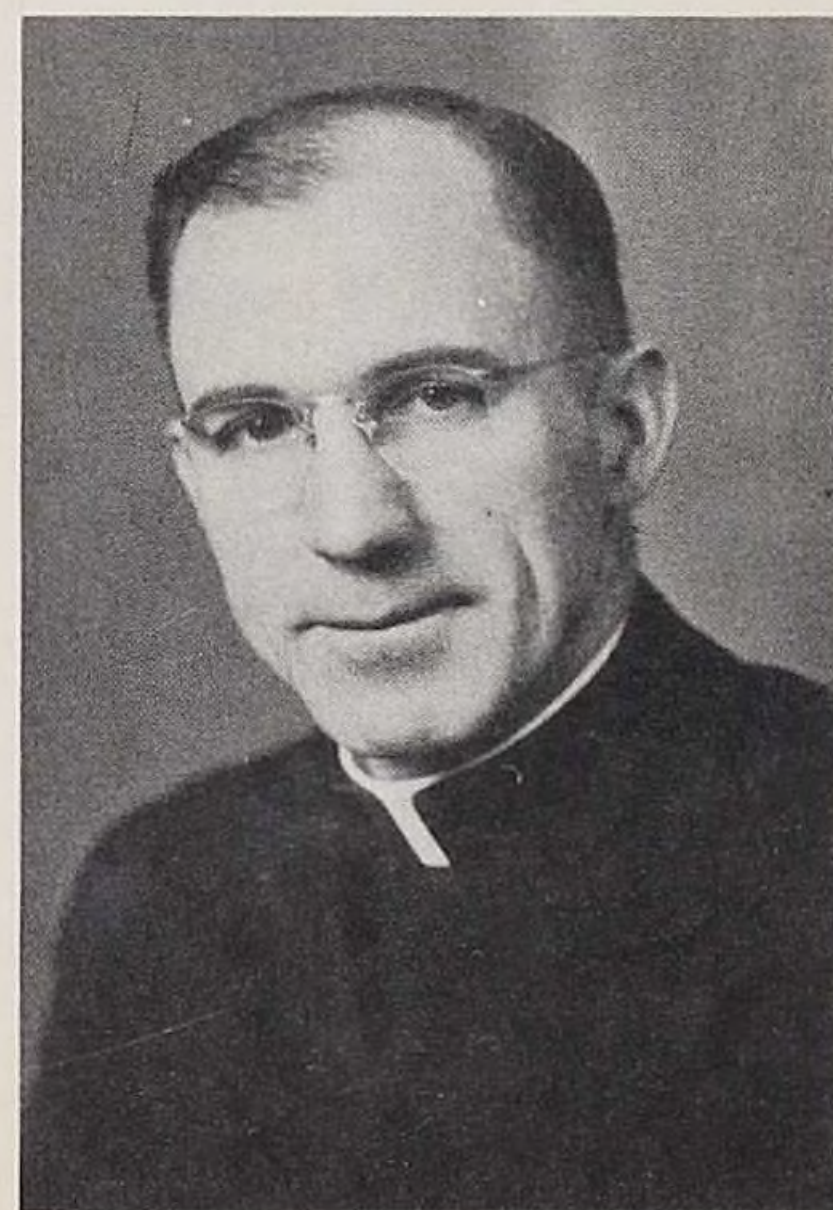

REV. EDMUND PUSCH, O.S.B.

Father George! Religion and sociology teacher, Father found time and energy to promote student gatherings last fall. We'll not forget the circle around the campfire, the burnt weiners, the songs, and the fun!

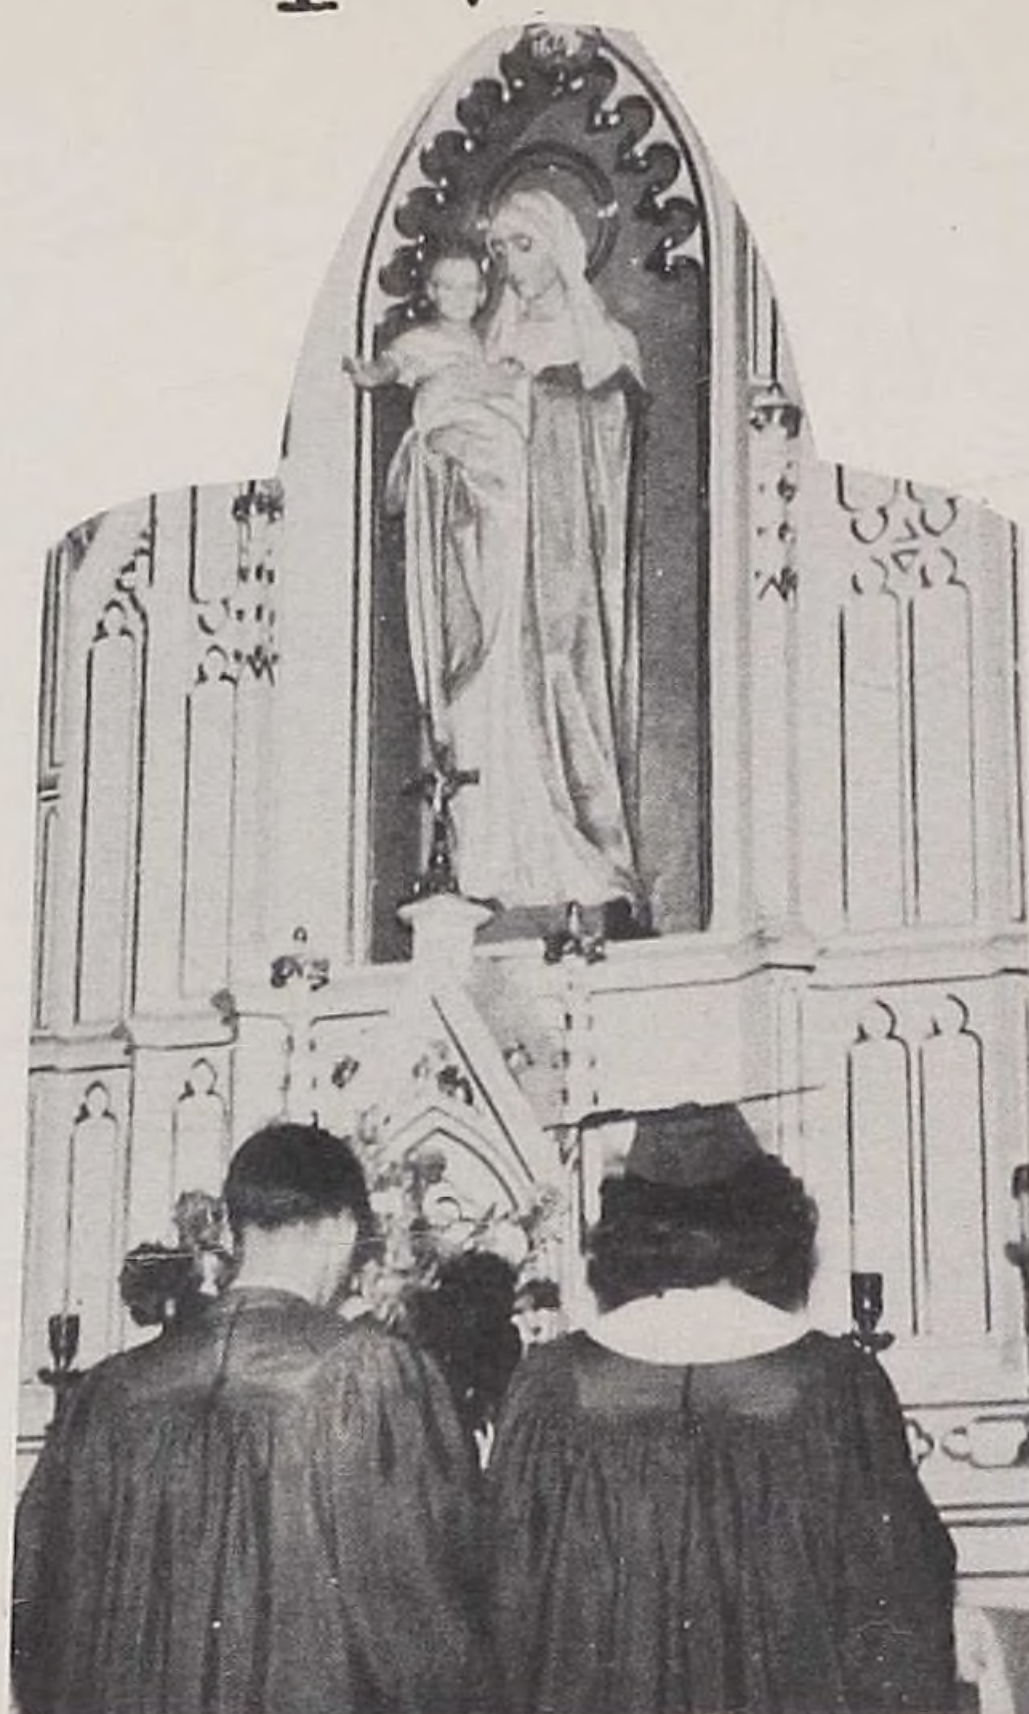

If St. Benedict's Abbey had ten Father Michael Carroll's, SCH would like to have all of them. A smile that brightens any morning, a way that makes breathless any study hour, a sportsmanship that upholds SCH's athletic program--these are some of God's gifts to Seneca through Father Michael!

Chapter 2

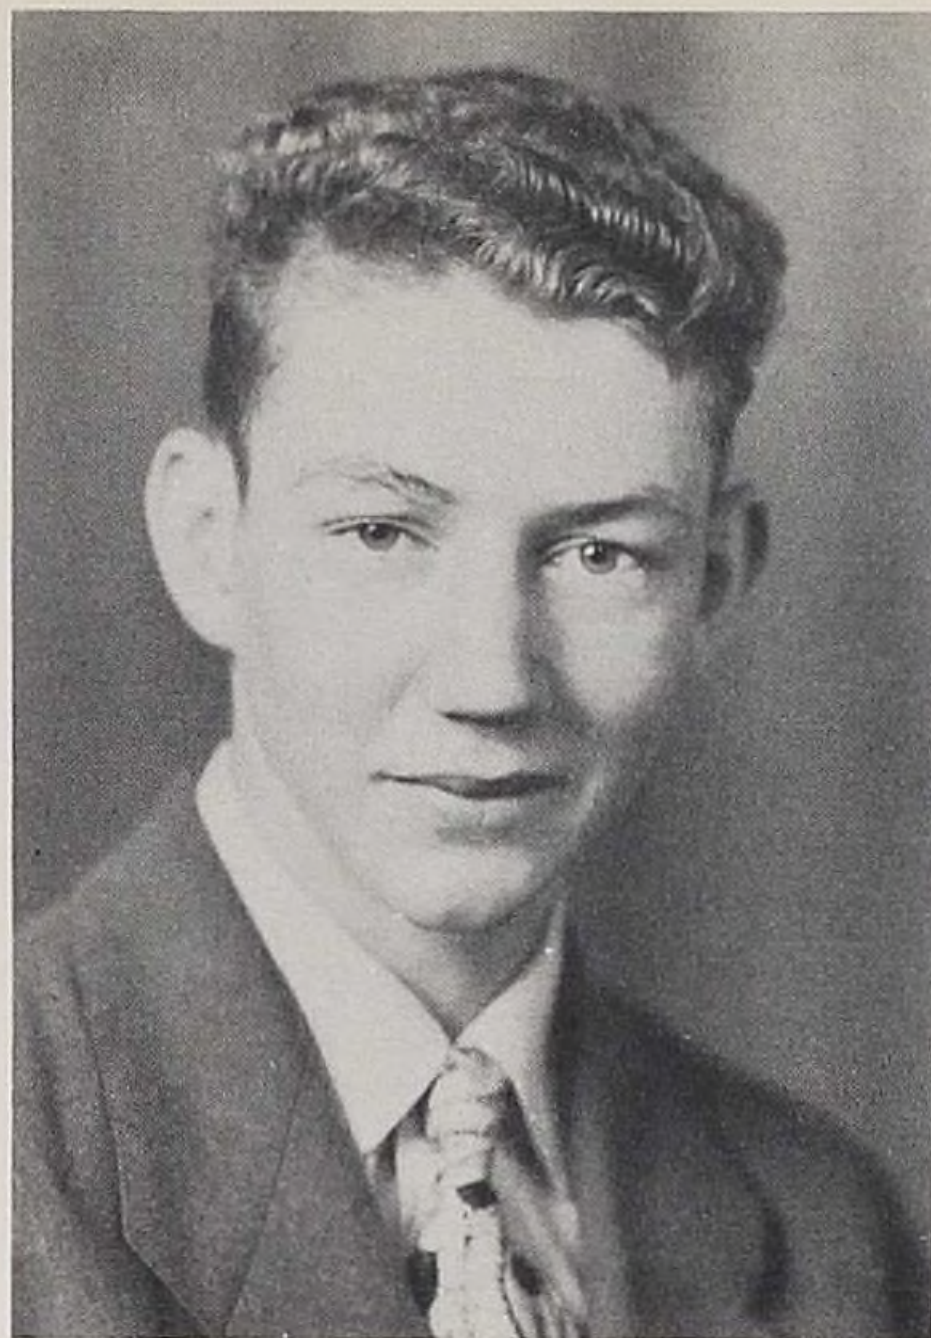

CONFIDENCE

Anyone on a winning side can walk with buoyant step. . . Because we believe, we hope, as we line up with Christ. . . Who reigns, Who conquers, Who commands. . . And when the dust of ages has cleared away and those who would not know Him. . . Are worn inscriptions on forgotten monuments, . . . He will reign in glory--and we who love Him live in Peace. In two short weeks the grey gown, and the diploma, . . . The class song, the goodbyes, . . . The lovely unforgettable ceremonies which people smile over and love. . . When the years have passed and the graduation picture has become someone else. . . In two weeks we go into a slightly different world, . . . With God's blessing and our consecration to Mary, . . . Into jobs, college, homemaking. Into a world always on the edge of that climax which began in heaven. . . When Michael drew the shining sword and darkness fell out of God's sight forever. . . Thank God for the challenge, . . . Thank God for the shining hope with which we leave Seneca Catholic High. . . "We look for the life of the world to come."

WORSHIP

Sing ye to the Lord with joy! . . . The strife and sorrows in our world today. . . Find the old church, founded upon a rock, . . . Still saying. . . "Sing ye with joy!" . . . For there is hunger in our world. . . As people starve for food, for Freedom. . . As little children die for want of beauty. . . But deepest hunger in our world is need of the Eternal. . . Humanity yearning, not to rule or even feast, . . . Yearning to kneel and rest its tortured heart in God.

Keep Vigil

In the solemn week-end of prayer and reverence paid by the parish to its kind and prayerful pastor, Seneca Catholic student joined.
Freshmen and sophomores kept vigil in church, where the body lay in state, from six to seven Sunday evening; juniors and seniors from seven to eight. On Tuesday, while Father Albert's monastic family at St. Benedict's Abbey, Atchison, conducted the funeral Mass and burial services, students gathered in the church here to say the Rosary.

Father Albert's death came as a great shock to the entire community but not the least to the hushed students summoned to church at three o'clock Friday to hear Father George announce:
"We have often spoken of how the Kingdom of God calls whom it wills.
We will offer a Rosary for the repose of the soul of Father Albert."

Things To Remember

Following the Rosary, the more than 400 schoolchildren moved in little hushed group on the playground. They recalled that during his two years spent her Father Albert had inaugurated two major devotions for world peace: the monthly Holy Hour and nocturnal adoration and the Saturday Fatima services; that he had carried out an improvement program in school buildings last year; that group singing and praying of the Mass was dear to his heart; that he loved boys' choir.

WE ARE COME TO ADORE HIM!

We thank you, Lord
For beauty that makes glorious the House of God,
Windows of blue and crimson,
Marble that stands
Forever strong and peaceful at Thy throne.

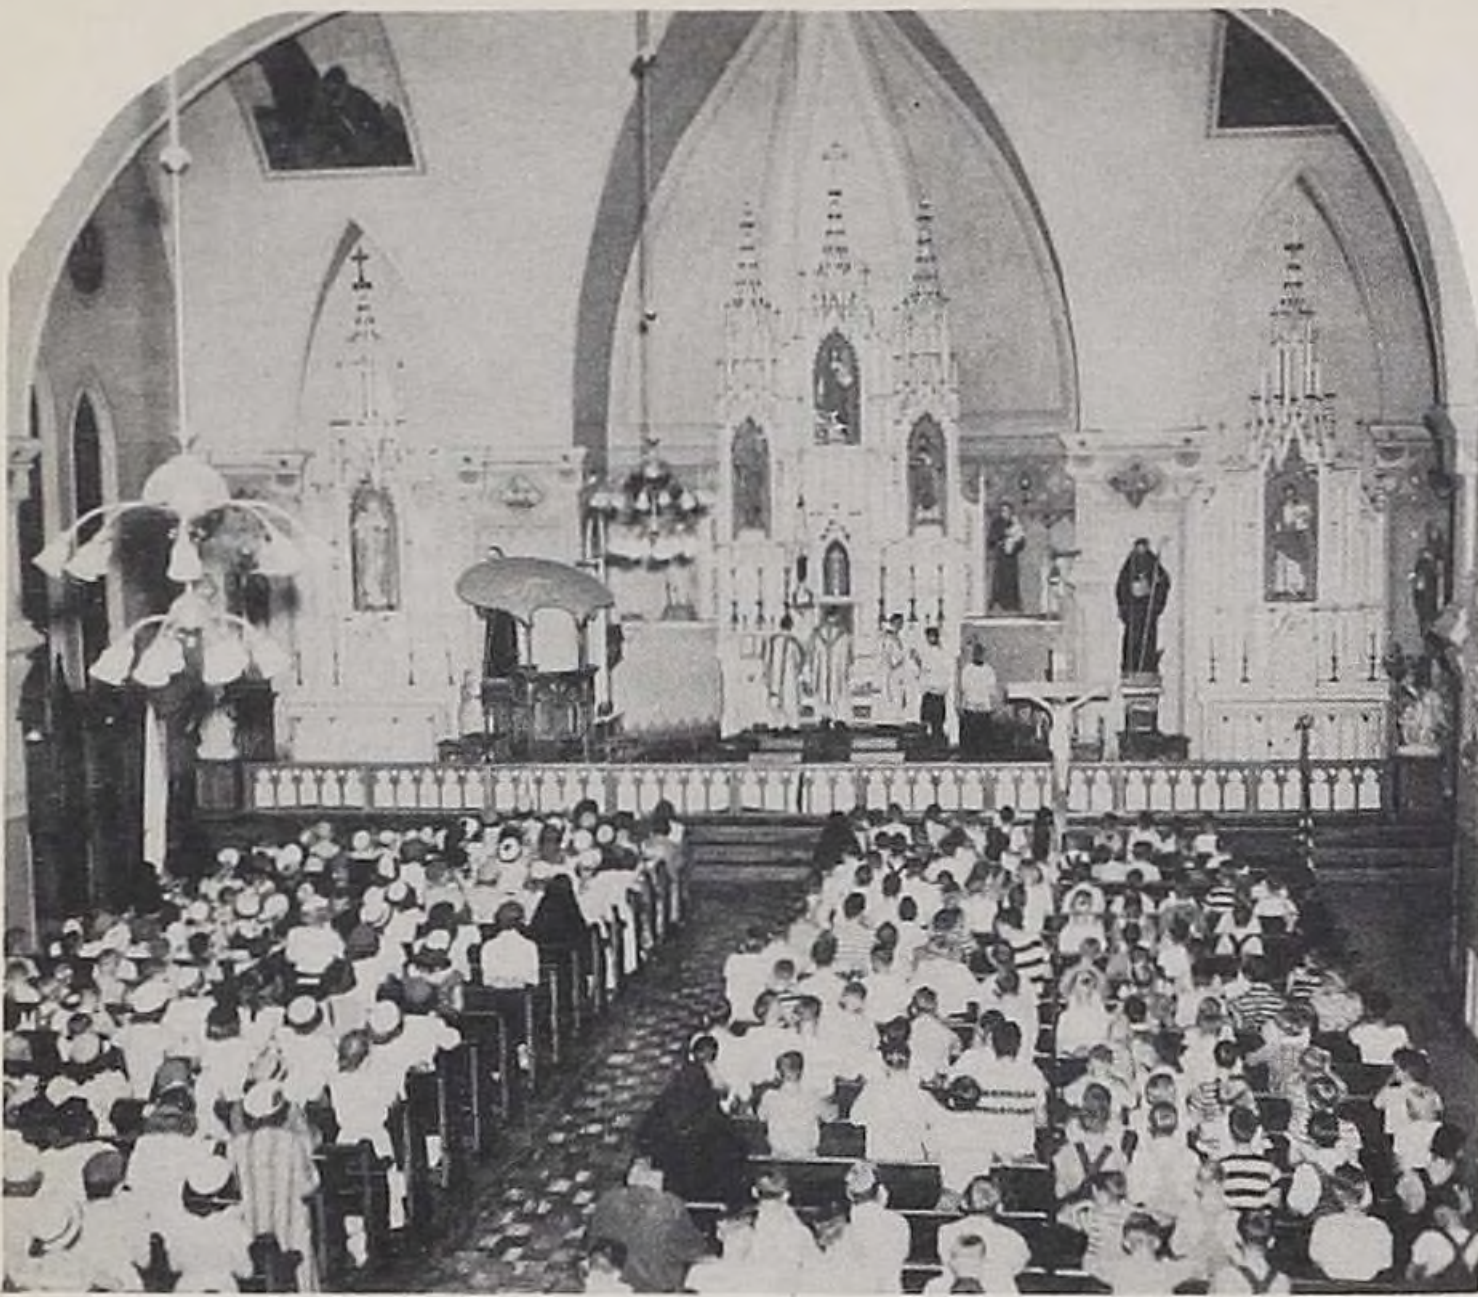

We thank You, too,
For music--and for Peace
That rests like sunlight in the quiet aisles,
And for each heart which brings its pain and joy
Before the tabernacle of the Lord most high.

We thank you, Lord,
For that eternity of strength in which You dwell.
Hatred will die and earth's storms pass away
But Love remains. . .
Tu autem idem ipse est et anni tui non deficient.
And every longing heart will find one day
Eternal Peace in You.

Oh Christ of Galilee, Oh God of Glory,
Your step is king along the busy lanes
of our America.
Your place of rest among us here is beautiful,
Your Presence here is gladness in the eyes of faith,
Your gentle reverence towards our hearts is Peace--
And Peace is Glory waiting. Thank You, Lord.

Education means to "lead out" . . .

To lead the mind to contemplate

God Who made it . . .

To lead the heart to rejoice

In all wonders of His creation . . .

To lead the hungry spirit of man

To trace the footsteps of his God in all the wonderful truths revealed:

His wisdom and right and justice in the inexorability of only one right answer to an algebra problem --

His mercy in history --

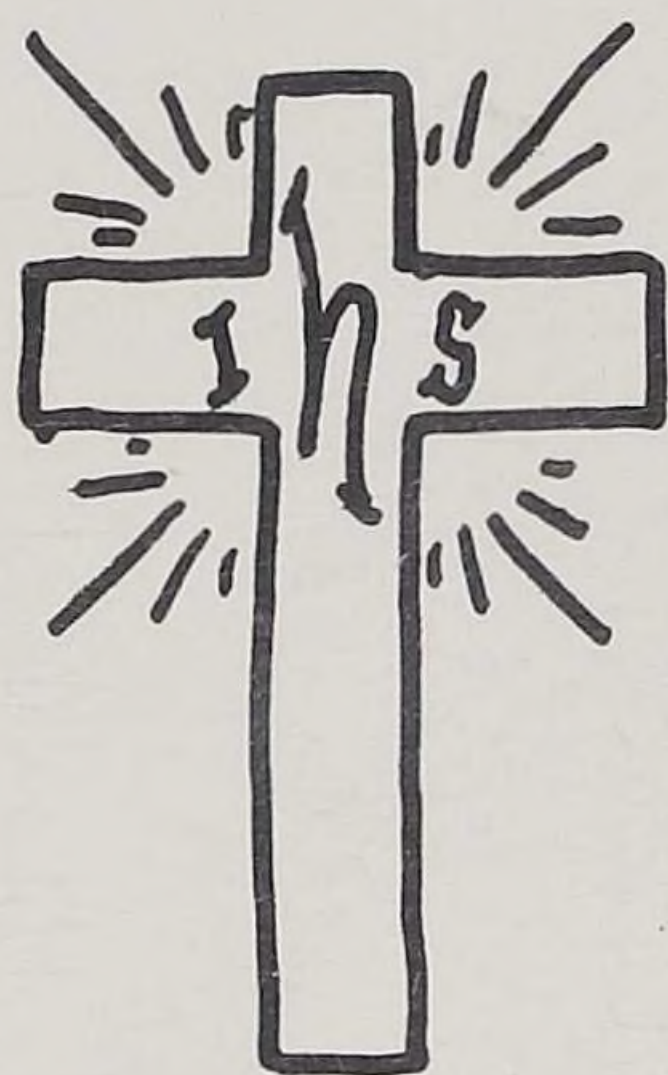

His great beauty in the poetry and music of the world . . .

His wonders in science and in the depth of one line of Shakespeare . . .

student -- may say,

"Joy is the badge of the Christian,"
 says Chesterton . . .
 It was purchased at a great price
 On Calvary's dark hill,
 And since then anyone can have it who will love Him who purchased it.
 All along the way of high school life
 we find it . . .
 In the day's little ways,
 In our proms and games and wisecracks,
 In the handshake of a friend
 And in the fellowship of working together.

For Christ is the Head of the Mystical Body And with all His members He shares His great peace.
